ACTION	You should: <ul style="list-style-type: none">○ note the availability of new and revised publications; and○ check you are holding latest versions
TIMING	Immediate

Publication dates

1. We have updated the publications page on our website, and the APAC publications order form, to show the publication date (in brackets) after each booklet title.
2. Please make sure that you are holding stock of the current version of each publication by checking the date on the back cover of each booklet against the corresponding booklet publication date on our website publications page. Please remember to bin out of date stock after ordering the current version.

Recap on recent publications

3. We have produced the following new and revised publications so far in 2008:
 - The Civil Service Additional Voluntary Contribution Scheme (revised January '08)
 - partnership pension account (revised March '08)
 - Civil Service Compensation Scheme (CSCS) - early retirement and redundancy for classic members (revised May '08)
 - classic plus and premium ill-health retirement pension benefits (revised March '08);
 - classic ill-health retirement pension benefits (revised January '08)
 - Partial retirement (new March '08)
 - Injury benefits scheme (revised March '08)
 - If you have a complaint about your pension (revised March '08)

- Your complaint under the second stage of the IDR procedures (revised March '08)
- 4. The “CSCS - early retirement and redundancy for classic members” booklet will be in stock at St Ives by 23rd May 2008.
- 5. We are constantly reviewing and revising the many publications to reflect changes, so some booklets and leaflets get out of date very quickly. To avoid the need to bin large quantities of redundant stock, please try to limit your orders to 3 months’ worth of stock at any time.
- 6. There are several new and revised publications in the pipeline. We will issue further Pensions Circulars to advise you when these are ready.
